

Domashevsky S.V. The new data on rare species of the birds of prey in the Kiev Region (Ukraine). // Strepet. – 2004. – Vol. 2.- № 2. –P. 5-27.

The data collected in 1988-2004 in the North of Ukraine in the Kiev Region are submitted. The area is divided from the north into the south by natural zones – Polesye and Forest-steppe. The material on migrations, distribution, ecology, number and registration of 10 species of the birds of prey brought in the Red data book of Ukraine (Osprey Pandionhaliaetus, Hen Harrier Circuscyaneus, Pallid Harrier Circusmacrourus, Long-Legged Buzzard Buteorufinus, Short-Toed Eagle Circaetusgallicus, Booted Eagle Hieraaetuspennatus, Spotted Eagle Aquilaclanga, Lesser Spotted Eagle Aquilapomarina, Imperial Eagle Aquilaheliaca, Golden Eagle Aquilachrysaetos, White-tailed Eagle Haliaeetusalbicilla, Griffon Vulture Gypsfulvus, Gyr Falcon Falcorusticolus, Saker Falcocherrug, Peregrine Falcoperegrinus) is collected. The nested population of some species of birds of prey is appreciated in such number: Buteorufinus– 11-14 pairs, Circaetusgallicus– 44-52 pairs, Hieraaetuspennatus– 10 pairs, Aquilapomarina– 90-100 pairs, Aquilaheliaca– 2-3 pairs, Haliaeetusalbicilla– 14-19 pairs, Falcocherrug– 5-8 pairs, Falcoperegrinus– 1-2 pairs.